Title GCC SETS DEC. 4 OPEN HOUSE
FOR STUDENT ART SHOW

Deptford Twp. - Gloucester County College will present an art show beginning at 2 p.m. Sunday, December 4, featuring the work of dozens of GCC student-artists.

The two-hour opening reception will offer paintings, drawings, photography, ceramics, digital art, sculpture, and mixed media according to Eoin Kinnarney, Director of The Art Gallery at GCC.

“We have a wealth of talent within our student body, as the exhibit will demonstrate,” said Kinnarney.

One of the featured artists, Thuy Vo, of Pitman, emigrated from Vietnam, where she spent two years studying architecture. She will have two graphite drawings and one ceramic piece on display.

Chuck Jackson, a police officer and forensic artist with the Haddon Township Police Department, will have two new oil paintings in the show. He is the only International Association for Identification certified forensic artist in the state of N.J. “I am excited about being in the show. My forensic work is shown in police departments around the state, but this will be my first gallery exhibit,” said Jackson. He is studying drawing and painting with Kinnarney.

Patrick Hurley of Westville, Frank Coratolo of Deptford, and Meghan Miller of Pennsville, are some of the other exhibiting artists.

The Art Gallery at GCC welcomes public viewing six days a week. The reception on December 4 will be its only Sunday opening. Gallery hours are 7:30 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday, and 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday. The show runs through Thursday, January 19.

The Art Gallery at GCC is located within the College Center, in the heart of the 270-acre main campus, on Tanyard Road, Deptford. It is just off Exit 56 of Route 55, and there is convenient free parking.
