Title GCC INVITES GUESTS TO WEDDING PERFORMANCE

Deptford Twp. – Michael and Lucia are getting married and everyone is invited when Gloucester County College presents Michael & Lucia's Wedding on Friday and Saturday, November 10 and 11 at 7:30 p.m. and on Sunday, November 12, at 4 p.m. in the College Center.

Faculty member Rose Gruber, of Voorhees, will direct the humorous participation musical that includes a not-so traditional Jewish/Catholic wedding between Michael Singer and Lucia Pavarotti followed by a lively reception. Guests will enjoy a ceremony full of mishaps and laughs, and an evening of dinner, music, and dancing.

Main cast members are played by Michael Stellaccio (groom) of Williamstown, Lucia Tripodi (bride) of Williamstown, Katie Decker (groom's mother) of Williamstown, Paul Yurgin (groom's father) of Pitman, Michelle Capanas (bride's mother) of Stratford, and Jamie Planamente (Uncle Luigi) of Williamstown. GCC students are cast in 21 out of the 26 character roles, with siblings and members of the community also participating.

Tickets are \$30 per person/ \$50 per couple and must be purchased in advance. No tickets will be sold at the door. The price of the ticket includes dinner and the show. For ticket purchase information, please call (856) 415-2139.

Gruber, a Hunter College graduate, has been an actress, teacher, and head of her own professional acting troupe. She has staged more than three dozen shows since she arrived on the GCC campus eighteen years ago as a professor of speech and theatre, as well as the theatre director. Productions have ranged from comedies and dramas to musicals and one-woman performances.
