Title NJ COMMISSIONER OF LABOR TO VISIT GCC CAMPUS

Deptford Twp. – New Jersey Commissioner of Labor and Workforce Development David Socolow will meet with local business leaders for breakfast and conversation on Wednesday, November 8, at 8 a.m. in the Gloucester County College cafeteria to discuss the new $18 million High-Growth Investment Grant initiative.

GCC President William F. Anderson and Senator Stephen Sweeney invite members of the business community to join Commissioner Socolow for breakfast. The Gloucester County College Business and Industry Training Center (BIT) provides quarterly, executive briefings on the most important topics in business. These sessions are provided at no cost. Business owners, CEO's, directors/managers of human resources, or anyone else responsible for employee and business development are encouraged to attend.

Prior to his appointment, Commissioner Socolow had served since 2002 as the Department's Director of Unemployment Insurance. Under his direction, New Jersey eliminated the waiting week for unemployment insurance benefits and implemented automatic filing for federal extended benefits. He has worked at the U.S. Department of Labor as Senior Advisor to the Deputy Secretary, and served on Capitol Hill as Chief of Staff to Congressman Robert Andrews and as a legislative representative for the national AFL-CIO.
