Title A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM
BRINGS ROMANCE & COMEDY TO GCC STAGE

Deptford Twp. – William Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream will hit the Gloucester County College stage on November 15, 16, and 17 in the College's Fine Arts Center, offering spectators a mystical adventure of romance and comedy.

Faculty member Rose Gruber, of Voorhees, will direct one of Shakespeare's most popular works, which centers on the escapades of four young Athenian lovers who flee to an enchanted forest to find happiness. A magical world of love and chaos erupts as mischievous fairies and amateur actors arrive on the scene to confuse and eventually reconcile the lovers through love potions and midsummer night revelries.

GCC cast members include Nelson Vazquez of Williamstown as Puck, Megan Bearint of Gloucester Township as Hermia, Lindsay Thies of Franklinville as Mustardseed, Matt Ford of Washington Township as Oberon, Adam Nelson of Williamstown as Lysander, and Keith Bowers of Bellmawr as Egeus.

Show times are Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, November 15, 16, and 17 at 8 p.m. Tickets are $7 per person if purchased in advance and $10 at the door. For more information, please call (856) 415-2139.

The Gloucester County College Fine Arts Center is within the main, 250-acre campus on Tanyard Road in Deptford, just off Exit 56 of Route 55. There is free parking for hundreds of vehicles a short walk from the Fine Arts Center.
