OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS PRESENTED TO 37th BASIC POLICE CLASS GRADUATES

Deptford Twp - Outstanding Achievement awards were presented to the 10 graduates of the 37th Basic Police Class of the Gloucester County Police Academy on Thursday, December 10, in the Physical Education Center on the campus of Gloucester County College.

One woman and nine men graduated with fanfare and good wishes, marking the completion of their 20-week training session. GCC Board of Trustees Chairman Gene J. Concordia welcomed guests. Opening remarks were presented by Dr. Russell A. Davis, President of Gloucester County College. The keynote address was given by retired Sheriff Charles W. Gill of the Gloucester County Sheriff's Department.

Following the awarding of diplomas, achievement awards were presented to the following graduates:

The Physical Training Award was presented to Sean M. Brown—Alternate Route, of Glassboro.

Ian J. Todd of the Salem County Sheriff's Department was the recipient of the Firearms Award.

The Academic, Gloucester County Hero Scholarship Fund and Director's Awards were presented to Robert W. Belli of Voorhees Township.

Kevin C. Hartwyk—Alternate Route, Washington Township, was the recipient of the Special Dedication Award and the Division of Criminal Justice Merit Award.

Kyle V. Snyder—Alternate Route, Glassboro, was the recipient of the Vehicle Operations Award.

The graduates represented three Southern New Jersey counties. The police academy operates as an autonomous unit within GCC's Division of Public Safety & Security.

Gloucester County College is located on a 250-acre campus on Tanyard Road, Deptford, just off Exit 56 of Route 55.
