

GLOUCESTER COUNTY COLLEGE

For more information contact
Andrea Stanton at (856) 415-2229
astanton@gccnj.edu

PR 001 – July 8, 2010

THIRTY-EIGHTH POLICE ACADEMY GRADUATION SLATED FOR THURSDAY, JULY 15

Deptford Twp. – Fifteen men and one woman will graduate from the Gloucester County Police Academy on Thursday, July 15, at 6 p.m. in the 11/12 gymnasium at Washington Township High School.

Fred H. Madden, director of the Police Academy, will welcome family and friends of the graduates, as well as senior law enforcement professionals and college officials. Gloucester County College President Russell A. Davis will provide the opening remarks.

The keynote address will be presented by Michael Kantner, assistant vice president of public safety at Rowan University.

Davis and Kantner will award the diplomas to the 16 graduates representing Atlantic, Camden, Gloucester and Salem Counties.

Atlantic County: Ray Anthony Burgan, (Alternate Route) Egg Harbor Township.

Camden County: Vincent Joseph Mazzaccaro, (Alternate Route) Gloucester City.

Gloucester County: Michael Edward Bates and David G. Birchmire Jr., Rowan University; Daniel Edward Carroll (Alternate Route) Williamstown; Christopher Anthony Cartella (Alternate Route) Mullica Hill; Vincent Anthony Constantine (Alternate Route) Franklinville; Ronald Anthony Marchese, Glassboro; Francis Joseph Mullin Jr., (Alternate Route) West Deptford; Kevin Patrick O'Hara (Alternate Route) Clayton; Louis Michael Omiatek (Alternate Route) Gibbstown; Patricia Ann Romaine and Christopher Michael Tarasevich (Alternate Route) Washington Township.

Salem County: Jimmy Franklin Endres Jr., Salem County Sheriff's Department.

Department of Defense: David M. McConnon and Luis Arturo Morales.

The Gloucester County Police Academy is located on the Gloucester County College campus on Tanyard Road, Deptford, just off Exit 56 of Route 55.

###