RON CASE NAMED ATHLETIC DIRECTOR OF THE YEAR

June 18, 2009, Orlando, FL

Gloucester County College Director of Athletics, Ron Case has been named the 2008-09 Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year for two-year colleges in the Northeast. This award was presented at the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics James J. Corbett Awards Luncheon which was held in Orlando, Florida on June 20, 2009. Case also received NACDA's Athletic Director of the Year Award in 2002-03 and 2005-06 making him the only three time winner in the 11 year history of the program.

During his 18 year tenure at Gloucester County College, Case has seen the Roadrunners win 14 NJCAA Division III National Championships, finish in the top three places 41 times in NJCAA Championship Events, win seven CAANJ Cups for having the best overall two-year college athletic program in the state of New Jersey and finish in the top three places in the NATYCAA Awards Program for Overall Program Excellence nationally for the past three years.

Ron was inducted into the Gloucester County Sports Hall of Fame early this year and has also received NATYCAA's highest award, the L. William Miller Award (2002), the Collegiate Athletic Administrators of New Jersey (CAANJ) Garden State Award (2007) and Gloucester County College's Medallion Award for Service to the College and Community (2007).
