Roadrunner Baseball Hot Start Leads to #2 National Ranking

April 5, 2010

The Roadrunners have been playing red hot baseball and their 17-1 start to the season has drawn a lot of national attention. The team moved up to #2 in the national rankings with key games this week against Cumberland CC, Camden CC, Ocean CC and a non-region contest on Friday night at Harford CC (MD).

This week the Roadrunners went 5-0 with a win over Montgomery CC (PA) on Thursday and two wins over Union CC on Friday and two more on Saturday against CC Morris.

Soph JJ Williams touches the plate after connecting on a 3-run home run on Saturday.

The Roadrunners have been led by the pitching efforts of Mike Ney, Nick Alloway, Rob Swift, and Frank Vitrano. At the plate, Alexi Colon and Jim Best have each hit 7 HR's.

On Saturday the Roadrunners got a solid pitching performance on the mound in game 1 by freshman Rob Swift, a Washington Township HS grad. Swift pitched the complete game of an 8-2 win over visiting CC Morris. Jim Best 2 HR's in the game.

In game 2, Best hit a 3-run HR as did JJ Williams and Matt Cuervo to help P Matt Spillman get the win.
