

The Gloucester County College Roadrunners track and field teams had a stellar weekend at the Osprey Open hosted by Richard Stockton College. The teams returned home with 15 national qualifying performances, 5 gold medals and 2 new school records. First place performances were turned in by Alyssa Figueroa in the 100m hurdles, Christina Lees in the pole vault with a new school record, Greg Taylor in the 400m hurdles, Allen Jackson in the 400m and Ozzie Huerta in the steeplechase with a new school record. Other top three performances were made by Frankie Contino placing 3rd in the 100m hurdles, Abby Majekodunmi placing 3rd in the javelin, and the men's 4x400m relay team of Jackson, Taylor, Alan Lemmerman, and TK Oyefesobi placing 2nd to end the meet.
