Wrestling Defeats Thaddeus Stevens 30-10 December 16, 2009, Deptford, NJ

The Gloucester County College wrestling team improved to 3-2 with a 30-10 win over visiting Thaddeus Stevens College on Wednesday night. The Roadrunners jumped ahead in the match early with wins by 174lb. Dan Leconey, 184lb. Dakota Moore, and Pitman HS graduate 197lb. Ricky McIlvaine and then pins by 149lb. Ben Sweezy and Woodstown HS graduate 165lb. Howie Graber put the match away.

Thaddeus Stevens came into the match ranked third in the nation for non-scholarship junior colleges. The win will likely put the Roadrunners back into the national rankings in the next poll. GCC also scored wins at 125lb. by Clearview Regional HS graduate Ryan Layton and at 133lb. by Andre Thompson.

Soph Dakota Moore continues to wrestle well at 184lbs.
