Wrestling Improves to 2-0 in Dual Meets December 9, 2009, Deptford, NJ

The Roadrunners improve to 2-0 with a 31-14 win over visiting Williamson Trade School (1-1). The Roadrunners win was highlighted by soph Dakota Moore (Pemberton, NJ/Camden Catholic HS) who pinned Williamson's Joe Link 1:04 into their match at 184lbs. Moore has been on a roll as of late finishing 3rd at the York College Invitational and winning his weight class at the Bob Quade Tournament held at Centenary College.

The most dramatic match of the evening came at 125lbs. as GCC soph Andre Thompson went into double overtime before defeating Williamson's Norman Switzer 3-1. No points were scored in the first three periods as the lightning quick Thompson and Switzer each attempted but could not get a strong grip on the other. Finally, in the last period of the second overtime, Thompson was able to shoot low and score the winning takedown as the crowd roared their approval. Thompson, a three-sport athlete here at GCC, is currently featured in the Roadrunner Spotlight for his exploits during the Cross Country season.

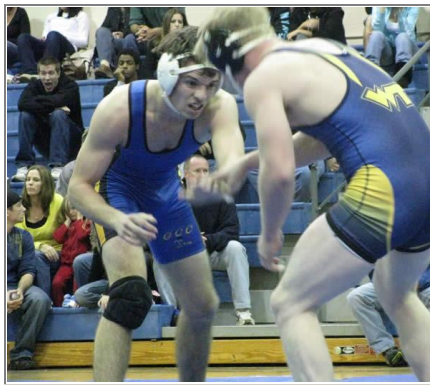

Soph Dakota Moore highlighted the win with a convincing 1st period pin.

The Roadrunners also recorded a win at 197lbs. by Pitman HS graduate Ricky McIlvaine. Williamson Trade School forfeited the 133, 157, and 285lb. weight classes.

The Roadrunners will face a stiff test this weekend as they will travel to Delaware Valley College on Saturday for a showdown tri-meet with Del Val and also Nassau CC, the defending NJCAA National Champions. The Roadrunners will return home on Wednesday December 16 for their final home match of the season against Thaddeus Stevens College at 7pm.
