Roadrunners Defeat Cecil CC 68-58

December 3, 2009
Deptford, NJ

The Roadrunners got back in the win column with a spirited 68-58 win over a talented Cecil CC team. Cecil was led by a game high 28 points for Sara Nathaniel but the Roadrunners were able to overcome this with a balanced effort that saw three players score in double figures.

GCC led 36-33 after a seesaw first half of action that saw several lead changes. GCC's Amber-Marie Riley caught fire late in the first and scored 10 of her team high 16 points to give the Roadrunners that important three point lead at the half. In the second half, soph leader Tasia Farmer helped break the game open with several sharp passes and key shots included 4-6 shooting from the foul line down the stretch.

The Roadrunner women improved to 4-7 with the win.. The women will be off until Tuesday when they will travel to Cumberland CC for a 6pm tipoff.
