Women's Soccer Defeats #6 Camden CC

August 31, 2010 Deptford, NJ

Two unanswered goals in a span of 3 minutes and 23 seconds in the first half propelled the Roadrunners to a 2-1 win in their home and Region XIX opener.

Jayne Elinski's goal off a restart at the 10 minute mark enabled the Cougars of Camden County College to jump off to a 1-0 lead. After controlling much of the play, Gloucester County College scored at the 31 minute mark on a goal by Jen Longley (Glassboro High School, Glassboro, NJ). Capitalizing on the momentum Gloucester County scored again at the 34th minute on a goal by Noelle Nociti (Pennsville, Pennsville, NJ). Gloucester County College kept up the pressure through the game and limited the Cougars chances for a tying goal.

The Roadrunners evened their record at 1-1 on Tuesday afternoon.

The win was the first for Roadrunner Coach Megan Ruttler.

Gloucester County College evened its record at 1-1, 1-0 in the conference. Camden County College dropped its season opener.
